

A photograph of a modern kitchen interior. The cabinetry is white with a satin lacquer finish. There are three built-in ovens. The countertop is a light grey material. On the countertop, there is a sink with a chrome faucet, a plate of yellow flowers, and some red fruit. The ceiling is made of wood. The overall design is minimalist and functional.

On hand

The Murrays' L-shaped workspace is streamlined in both style and function, and unnecessary adornments are kept to a bare minimum
